GOVERNORS RAISE THE STAKES FOR STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS

RALEIGH — There is more on the line than just bragging rights in the Stanley Cup Finals. Gov. Mike Easley and Gov. John Engler of Michigan have each offered one of their state's tastiest treats in the spirit of friendly competition.

In the unlikely event that the Hurricanes lose the Cup, Easley offered North Carolina's homegrown Krispy Kreme donuts.

When the Hurricanes win the Cup, Engler has agreed to send Michigan's homegrown Little Caesars pizza. Gov. Easley said the pizza will be donated to local shelters.
